Subject: OneNote document sharing platform

Hello Fred and Susannah – I just sent both of you an invitation to join a OneDrive site that I have now received permission to share with you folks! The message I sent with the invitation is below. Please let me know if you didn't get the invitation to join the site and I'll figure out any kinks from this end. I am looking forward to our meeting later this month. Best, Anne

Hello Fred and Susannah - I have been asked to share this One Drive with the two of you to see if this is a format through which we want to share documents. Currently, there are no documents in this site, but we will change that if we decide this is a good platform to use. I can add any folks from MA DEP who want to be added. Thanks, Anne
